The workshop is designed for 10-11 people. Our guide, Claudio Vidal, is a wonderful and knowledgeable person whom, I'm sure, you will enjoy travelling with. I have had the pleasure of his company on four visits, and he is universally loved by all who have been with him. Claudio's company, Far South Expeditions, has made our arrangements, which I know from experience will be comfortable.

The cost of the workshop is $6,495 for shared accommodations (plus $1,240 single supplement) based on 10-11 participants. This includes: hotels, bus transportation, meals commencing with dinner in El Calafate through breakfast in Puerto Natales. Some breakfasts or lunches may be box/bag to allow us the maximum flexibility in our photography.

If we travel with 8-9 participants there would be a $625 supplemental charge. I will keep everyone informed.

Additional costs include our international flights, our in-country flights (which I estimate to be $850), alcoholic beverages, tipping, travel insurance, entrance tax to Chile, snacks, laundry, telephone calls and anything else of a purely personal nature, as well as any individual transportation other than that with the group.

Argentina has a "reciprocity fee," which they charge to visitors from some countries. The US charges a similar fee to visitors from Argentina. The fee is $160 for each country. If you have visited previously, the fee is good for 10 years. If not, the fee is pre-paid online. You will receive a receipt, which allows you to enter the country.

To reserve a place in the workshop a deposit of $3,250 is required with the balance ($3,245 plus single supplement) due January 1, 2016. Please send an email to info@eliotcohen.com to confirm availability and then your check can be mailed to:

The workshop fee is based on double accommodations. Please note that additional charges apply for single accommodations. I am happy to assist in coordinating room sharing for singles.

Please check with me prior to making international air arrangements to confirm that the workshop is running as planned and that your arrival/departure will coordinate with our group travel schedule.

A standard liability waiver will be forwarded to participants prior to departure. I do not expect extreme exertion in any of our activities, but we may be walking for several hours at a time. Our hikes in El Chalten will include elevation gains of 1,000 feet. You should be in good health and capable of this level of activity. We are not at high altitude. El Chalten is roughly 1,200 feet above sea level.

Cancellations/refunds:

By Aug 31, 2015, the workshop fee will be refunded less a $300 cancellation fee.

By Dec 31, 2015, the workshop fee will be refunded less a $750 cancellation fee.

Jan 1, 2016 or later, the workshop fee will be refunded less a $950 cancellation fee if another participant can take your place.

By submitting your deposit, you acknowledge reading and agree to these terms.
